

This prayer booklet was created to remind believers that even on Halloween night, God's presence still reigns and His light still shines. Inside are powerful, heartfelt prayers for protection, gratitude, and compassion, written to guide families as they walk their neighborhoods, greet friends, and meet new faces. Visit get-prayer.com for more prayer resources.

Prayer Book

Notes

Prayer For Protection

Heavenly Father, Tonight, as the world turns its eyes to costumes and candy, we turn our hearts to You, our refuge, our defender, our light in the night.
Cover us under Your mighty hand.
Let no harm, no fear, and no darkness
cross the threshold of our homes.
When we step out, Lord, step with us.
When we meet others, shine through us.
Surround our children, guard their laughter, and guide their steps.
Let Your angels patrol every street,
every door, every heart.
In the strong name of Jesus, we declare:
no weapon formed against us shall prosper.
Amen.

Prayer for the People We See

Lord, You've called us to be light in a dark world.
Tonight, as we walk through our neighborhoods,
help us to see people the way You see them
not just costumes and faces, but souls You love, Amen..

---

Prayer Over the Candy and Treats

Father of every good and perfect gift,
Thank You for the laughter and the little hands clutching candy and treats.
We ask that You bless every good thing
given and received.
Keep our food and our hearts pure.
Protect us from anything harmful physically, spiritually, or emotionally.